

and round, the following were the times of the two yachts:

Britannia	2 26 10
Vigilant	2 28 10

The time of the two yachts at the Port Leven mark on the second round were as follows:

Britannia	3 24 30
Vigilant	3 27 40

The wind had backed around westward slightly, and spinnakers were not wanted on the homestretch.

Following were the times of the two yachts at the finish:

Britannia	4 19 45
Vigilant	4 24 57

STEAMER CASTOR SUNK.

Collided with a Bark Off Folkestone, England.

(By Associated Press.)
FOLKESTONE, Eng., July 28.—The steamer "Castor" and the bark "Ernst" were in collision to-day off Sandgate. The "Castor" was badly injured and sank within a few minutes after the vessels came together.

Twenty-six passengers and the crew of thirty-six were landed at Folkestone.

In Carnegie a Tariff Reformer.

LONDON, July 28.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie, in an interview published in the "Engineering Review," is quoted as saying that he does not think the United States now require protection, which, he claims, is of little use for revenue purposes, as manufactured imports have fallen so low.

$4,000,000 IN GOLD SHIPPED.

Sub-Treasury Balance Now Stands at About $56,000,000.

Financiers Not Alarmed Over the Yellow-Metal Movement.

Today's European steamers took out $4,000,000 in gold, shipped by the following houses: Lazard Freres, $2,500,000; Heidebach, Ickelheimer & Co., $1,500,000; and Lazard, Thalmann & Co., $500,000.

All of the specie was taken from the Sub-Treasury, thus reducing its balance to about $56,000,000. The steady depletion of our stock of the yellow metal has revived the talk about another issue of Government bonds, but as far as known the Administration has no such intention.

Should Congress act speedily on the tariff business would revive, and the Treasury would be able to add to its stock of gold. At any rate there is no apprehension in financial circles over the situation, and as the banks are strong in reserve, borrowers of money are not inconvenienced in the least.

The supply of exchange is so small that it will not be surprising if further calls of gold are made during the coming week.

The imports of specie at the port of New York for the week were $5,525,000, of which $3,352 was gold and $2,173 silver. For the corresponding week of 1893 the imports were $1,252,800.

The steamship Saginaw, which arrived from Santo Domingo yesterday, brought $50,000 Mexican silver, consigned to J. B. Vacine & Co.

Robbery at an "L" Station.

O'Brien Grabbed Money from the Ticket Office.

Patrick O'Brien, thirty-six years old, of 38 Oliver street, was held in $500 by Justice Peeling in Essex Market Court, to-day on the charge of robbery. It is said that shortly after 5 o'clock this morning O'Brien sneaked up the steps of the "L" station at Canal street and Bowery, and putting his hands through the ticket-office window, he grabbed all of the loose change he could reach.

John H. Keegan, of 200 Third avenue, the ticket-seller, had his back turned at the time. He turned around in time, however, to see O'Brien make a grab for more money. When O'Brien saw that he was discovered he bounded down the steps, half a dozen at a time, and followed by the police.

Policeman Johnson, of the "L" station, arrested O'Brien at Canal and Charlotte streets, where he had been seen to be carrying a bag of money. He had been robbed of $5 and that amount of money in silver was found on the prisoner.

Stole the Horses' Oats.

Pape Caught Leaving a Stable with a Bag of Them.

William F. Haggerty, the manager of a branch of a Wells-Fargo stable, at 650 Sixth avenue, has recently noted that his horses grew lean, although he persistently bought the best quality of oats.

Last night Detectives Kash and Jerolomon, of the West Thirtieth street station, saw Ralph Pape, one of Haggerty's drivers, who is twenty-two years old, and lives in Mott street, steal a bag of oats valued at $1.12.

Pape was arrested, and this morning in Jefferson Market Court was held for trial.

Plot to Smuggle Chinese.

Three Arrested for Counterfeiting Registry Certificates.

(By Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Ore., July 28.—An elaborate scheme to smuggle Chinese into the United States was unearthed here yesterday by Federal officers. James A. Miller, E. Reed and a printer and engraver have been arrested for counterfeiting internal revenue registry certificates for Chinese.

Their plan was to sell certificates to Chinese here and in San Francisco, where they expected to do a wholesale business. The plan was to smuggle the certificates, a man named Minto, who came here from Baltimore, had been arrested in San Francisco with the plan of printing the certificates.

Accused of Abusing His Horse.

Michael Herring, thirty-four years old, of 191 Livingston street, was held for trial by Justice Peeling in Essex Market Court to-day. He was charged with striking his horse with a pitchfork and with driving it recklessly.

Impure Blood

Manifies itself in hot weather in hives, pimples, boils and other eruptions which disfigure the face and cause great annoyance. The cure is found in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which makes the blood pure and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

and removes all such eruptions. It also gives strength, creates an appetite and invigorates the whole system. Get Hood's and only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A LIE, SAYS DOHERTY.

Declares that Martin's Statement Is Untrue.

Perhaps He Will Tell Something About the Commissioner.

Feeling at Headquarters that "Something is Going to Drop."

The quiet that prevailed about Police Headquarters this morning was generally regarded as the calm before the storm. It is expected on all sides that something big will break before long, and all eyes are looking towards Police Capt. Doherty to make the first move.

Supt. Byrnes has not formulated his charges against the five percents as directed by the Board when it broke Doherty. He expects to do so early next week, probably by Monday. The Commissioners were conspicuous by their absence in the early morning hours. They are waiting to see the full effect of their last action before proceeding with their other tasks.

Before any others are brought to trial, however, it is expected that the Commissioners will render a decision in the cases of the captains recently put on trial for collusion with the Department.

Capt. Doherty's indignation is on the increase, and there is a word of truth in the story he has to tell which his lawyer, Louis J. Grant, hinted at yesterday. He had any idea of keeping quiet, the statement of President Martin, made yesterday, will probably make him change his mind.

The statement was in answer to a question as to what he had to say to the ex-Captain's story, that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

In spite of his denial, my statement is true. I did report to President Martin that I believed Doherty's statement. He said that he had seen the Commissioner in the morning and complained about his sergeant's accepting the bond of Mrs. Thaw for a woman who had been arrested at her home.

The Commissioner declared yesterday that there was no word of truth in the story, but that he did not think any man would believe Doherty's statement. He denied that the ex-Captain had ever complained to him in any way.

THE LUCANIA'S ROYAL GUEST.

Prince Besolov and ex-Mayor W. R. Grace Are Fellow Voyagers.

Seven Steamships Carry Many Passengers to Europe.

Seven ocean liners carry the usual mid-summer Saturday quota of rest-seekers to Europe to-day.

Among the passengers on the Cunarder "Lucania" was ex-Mayor William R. Grace, accompanied by Mrs. Grace, two daughters and a son. They will put to sea on Saturday for the Continent and return in time for Mr. Grace to make his presence felt in the Fall elections. He still adheres to his sincerity in endeavoring to down Tammany, and will gain strength during his stay abroad for the coming fall.

Another unique figure on board the "Lucania" was a real-life African King. As he has not been crowned yet he is known as Prince Besolov. He returns to his native country to become ruler of the Kingdom of Benin. He is a son of King Armaah, and was stated to be coming to America with his father. An uncle, who was his guardian, took the throne, however, and the Prince, who is a missionary, went to Liberia to be educated. The American Colonization Society is his patron.

He has taken a course at Williams College and has spent some time in England. He is a well-educated man, and stands nearly 6 feet high.

The unfortunate Irish immigrant, who, it is alleged, was unjustly imprisoned here, is also a passenger on the "Lucania." He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is a man of color, and is said to be a member of the "Lucania" crew.

Some of the passengers on the French liner, "Bordeaux," are also on the "Lucania." They are the family of the late John R. D. Doherty, who was killed in the "Lucania" disaster.

Mr. Besolov, of the "Lucania," is a well-known figure in the city. He is